

DUNCAN CHRISTIE

Duncan Christie is a London based director working in commercials, music videos and film. His student commercial for Dove won 3 Kodak Awards. Since then he has been nominated for the D&AD next director award for his film "Power of Play" for Chevrolet which explores the power of football as a tool to challenge the stigma surrounding HIV in Indonesia. Duncan has worked internationally with major advertising agencies and brands including Hyundai, Time Out, Vodafone, SK-II and, most notably, Breast Cancer Now, for which he has won multiple awards. Honest, emotive storytelling and powerful performances with a keen visual eye distinguish his work across a range of genres. Outside of his commercial work, Duncan's short films have screened at festivals globally.
