

HANUL LEE

A naturalistic aesthetic appeal that transcends the realms of time is reminiscent of an artist's work, but it also best describes Director Lee's commercials. Drawing his inspiration from top fashion gurus, Rembrandt and various other artistic masters, it is little wonder that Lee's work has taken on these stellar qualities. After beginning his career as an Art Director, he transitioned into Directing commercials and music videos in 2001 and has since gone on to win multiple awards. Asked what his goal is, Lee humbly replies, "To continuously improve, with the objective of working with, learning from and being the best, while taking Museum Film's hard working, highly supportive team with me to the top". However, he is not one to focus only on his goals; instead, his primary focus during every project is to know that he can guarantee client satisfaction.
