

KAY PHANAKORN

Kay is an award-winning director from Thailand, a talented storyteller masterfully combining emotive and informative elements. She was the first Thai director to make a short film for Cornetto Global's 'Cupidity' project in 2015. The landmark campaign, which consists of a series of short but sweet love stories, won a Cannes Lions Award in the Branded Content and Entertainment category. Her personal short films have garnered awards in Los Angeles and Thailand and made the official selection at numerous festivals around the world. Kay is also a screenwriter on Netflix's first Thai language original series 'The Stranded'.
